TO: Dylan William David Oneschuk

The Executive Director of the Real Estate Council of Alberta (RECA) has determined there is sufficient evidence you have contravened section 54(1)(d) of the *Real Estate Act Rules and this is conduct deserving of sanction.

54(1) A real estate broker, associate broker or associate, as the case may be, must not:

(d) directly or indirectly, advertise, communicate or offer to any person an incentive except an incentive that is provided by and on behalf of the brokerage with which he is registered;

Particulars of the contravention(s):

1. In or around February 2020, you advertised a personal incentive contrary to section 54(1)(d) of the Real Estate Act Rules:
  - a) You sent out an advertisement which stated Lake Bonavista Residents could list their home with you for a flat fee of $1995 plus GST. This was a personal incentive. It was not a brokerage offered incentive. This was a breach of the legislation.
  - b) Your brokerage policy states: "All incentives to trade or inducements must be carried out at the brokerage level, and must receive Broker approval in writing prior to offering." This advertisement was not compliant with your brokerage policy.

Only a brokerage can advertise incentives to the public. Industry professionals must not directly or indirectly, advertise, communicate or offer to any person their own incentives whose sole purpose is to attract business to them personally. An "incentive" is anything a brokerage advertises, communicates or offers to the public to attract business. Examples of incentives include travel miles, gifts, contests, gift certificates, games of chance or anything else of value. A brokerage incentive must be available to all clients or potential clients of a brokerage.

The Executive Director considered the following aggravating and mitigating factors:

Aggravating Factors

- You failed to follow brokerage policy that specifically prohibits a personal incentive and failed to get brokerage approval for the advertising.
- RECA has received numerous complaints about personal incentives. RECA must send a message to deter this misconduct.

Appeal

You have the right to appeal this Administrative Penalty to a Hearing Panel. See section 83.1 of the *Real Estate Act for what you must do to appeal.

In an appeal you will be given a full opportunity consistent with procedural fairness and natural justice to present evidence before the Hearing Panel in relation to the contraventions alleged.

Your written notice of appeal must comply with section 83.1 and must be received by the Executive Director within 30 days of you receiving this Administrative Penalty.

If you appeal, payment of the Penalty will not be required until an order to pay a penalty is issued by the Hearing Panel. If you have any questions regarding particulars or the appeal process, please contact:
