TO: Tanya Esther Eklund

The Registrar of the Real Estate Council of Alberta (RECA) has determined there is sufficient evidence you have contravened section 41(b) of the Real Estate Act Rules and this is conduct deserving of sanction.

Rule 41 – Licensees must:

(b) provide competent service

Particulars of the contravention(s):

1. In or around April, 2021 you failed provide competent service, contrary to section 41(b) of the Real Estate Act Rules:
 - a) You were representing buyers interested in viewing a property.
 - b) This was during the COVID-19 pandemic. The showing instructions included wear masks at all times, only two adults from the same household plus the associate allowed, maximum of 30 minutes allotted time in house.
 - c) April 12, 2021, you had permission to bring your buyer clients to view the property for a second showing.
 - d) There were three people plus yourself in the property. Further, you exceeded the time allotment by 17 minutes. This was a failure to exercise reasonable care and skill when a property was under your care and control.

The Registrar considered the following aggravating and mitigating factors:

Aggravating Factors

- RECA has received multiple complaints from sellers about licensees failing to follow seller requirements or brokerage expectations when accessing or viewing a property. We must deter this conduct.

Appeal

You have the right to appeal this Administrative Penalty to a Hearing Panel. See section 83.1 of the *Real Estate Act for what you must do to appeal.

In an appeal you will be given a full opportunity consistent with procedural fairness and natural justice to present evidence before the Hearing Panel in relation to the contraventions alleged.

Your written notice of appeal must comply with section 83.1 and must be received by the Registrar within 30 days of you receiving this Administrative Penalty.

If you appeal, payment of the Penalty will not be required until an order to pay a penalty is issued by the Hearing Panel. If you have any questions regarding particulars or the appeal process, please contact:
