Municipal Government Act applies

2(1) Part 17 of the Municipal Government Act applies to any building or land that is subject to a condominium plan or a proposed condominium plan or in respect of which a condominium plan is terminated.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the provisions of Part 17 of the Municipal Government Act relating to the subdivision of land do not apply to the division of a building under a condominium plan if

- (a) the surface boundaries of the parcel as defined in this Act on which that building is located correspond to the boundaries of a parcel of land as defined in Part 17 of the Municipal Government Act, and

- (b) each building located on the parcel that contains a unit contains 2 or more units.

1983 c71 s3;1995 c24 s100

Plan of subdivision

3 For the purposes of Part 17 of the Municipal Government Act and the Land Titles Act, a condominium plan is a plan of subdivision.

1983 c71 s3;1995 c24 s100

Subdivision of buildings into units

(1) A building or land may be designated as a unit or part of a unit or divided into 2 or more units by the registration of a condominium plan under this Act.

(2) The Registrar shall not register a condominium plan unless that condominium plan describes 2 or more units in it.

(3) For the purposes of the Land Titles Act, a condominium plan is deemed on registration to be embodied in the register.

(4) This Act applies only with respect to land held in fee simple, excepting from the fee simple all mines and minerals.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), if land is held under lease and a certificate of title has been issued under the Land Titles Act in respect of the lease, this Act applies to the land described in the certificate of title, excepting from that title all mines and minerals.

RSA 1980 cC-22 s2;1983 c71 s4

Certificate of title for unit

5(1) On registering a condominium plan, the Registrar

- (a) shall cancel the certificate of title to the parcel described in the plan, except as to any mines and minerals comprised in it, and
- (b) shall issue a separate certificate of title for each unit described in the plan, and any interests affecting the parcel that are noted on the certificate of title cancelled under clause (a) shall be endorsed on the certificates of title issued under clause (b).

(2) No more than one unit may be included in one certificate of title and no other land, except the owner's share in the common property, may be included in the same certificate of title with a unit.

(3) After a certificate of title to a unit is issued pursuant to subsection (1), the unit comprised in it may devolve or be transferred, leased, mortgaged or otherwise dealt with in the same manner and form as land held under the Land Titles Act and the provisions of that Act apply to those dealings insofar as they do not conflict with this Act or the regulations.

RSA 1980 cC-22 s3

Certificate to show share in common property

6(1) The Registrar, in issuing a certificate of title for a unit, shall certify on it the owner's share in the common property.

(2) The common property comprised in a registered condominium plan is held by the owners of all the units as tenants in common in shares proportional to the unit factors for their respective units.

(3) Except as provided in this Act, a share in the common property shall not be disposed of or become subject to a charge except as appurtenant to the unit of an owner and a disposition of or charge on a unit operates to dispose of or charge that share in the common property without express reference to it.

RSA 1980 cC-22 s4

Liability of owner

7 Except to the extent that an interest endorsed on a certificate of title relates to that particular unit, the owner of the unit is only liable in respect of that interest in proportion to the unit factor for the owner's unit.

RSA 1980 cC-22 s5

Condominium Plans

Requirements of condominium plan

8(1) Every plan presented for registration as a condominium plan shall

- (a) be described in the heading of the plan as a condominium plan,
- (b) delineate the external surface boundaries of the parcel and the location of the building, if any, in relation to them,
- (c) except where the condominium plan is to divide a building referred to in section 2(2), delineate that portion of the land that is to be provided for the purposes of roads, public utilities and reserve land under Part 17 of the Municipal Government Act,

- (d) bear a statement containing those particulars as may be necessary to identify the title to the parcel,
 - (e) include a drawing illustrating the units and distinguishing the units by numbers or other symbols,
 - (f) define the boundaries of each unit,
 - (g) where a building is to be divided into units, show the approximate floor area of each unit,
 - (h) where land is to be divided into bare land units, show the approximate area of each unit,
 - (i) where in accordance with section 50 an owner may be permitted to exercise exclusive possession in respect of an area or areas of common property, delineate to the satisfaction of the Registrar the boundaries of the area of common property over which the owner may be permitted to exercise exclusive possession,
 - (j) have endorsed on it a schedule specifying in whole numbers the unit factor for each unit in the parcel,
 - (k) where the property for which the plan is presented for registration is to be developed into units and common property in phases, contain the information required under the regulations with respect to the development of property in phases,
 - (l) be signed by the owner of the property,
 - (l.1) delineate, illustrate and label parking spaces for visitors and persons with disabilities, if any,
 - (i) on common property where the condominium plan is not a plan of redivision, or
 - (ii) on a unit where the condominium plan is a plan of redivision,
 - (m) have endorsed on it the address at which documents may be served on the corporation concerned in accordance with section 71, and
 - (n) contain any other features prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) Where, with respect to units included in a condominium plan, there are qualifications or restrictions respecting the use of a unit that are not prohibited under the law, those qualifications or restrictions may be endorsed on the condominium plan.

(3) The Registrar shall, within 28 days from the day a condominium plan is registered, mail to the municipal authority of the municipality in which the parcel is located, a copy of the registered condominium plan.

RSA 2000 cC-22 s8;2014 c10 s3

Boundaries of condominium units

9(1) Unless otherwise stipulated in the condominium plan, if

- (a) a boundary of a unit is described by reference to a floor, wall or ceiling, or
- (b) a wall located within a unit is a load bearing wall, the only portion of that floor, wall or ceiling, as the case may be, that forms part of the unit is the finishing material that is in the interior of that unit, including any lath and plaster, panelling, gypsum board, panels, flooring material or coverings or any other material that is attached, laid, glued or applied to the floor, wall or ceiling, as the case may be.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1),

- (a) all doors and windows of a unit that are located on interior walls of the unit are part of the unit unless otherwise stipulated in the condominium plan, and
- (b) all doors and windows of a unit that are located on exterior walls of the unit are part of the common property unless otherwise stipulated in the condominium plan.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a reference

- (a) to a door includes the door, the door frame and the door assembly components, if any, but does not include the door casing, trim or mouldings, and
- (b) to a window includes the glazing, the window frame and the window assembly components, if any, but does not include the window casing, trim or mouldings.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), if a condominium plan was registered prior to January 1, 1979, the common boundary of any unit described in the condominium plan with another unit or with common property is, unless otherwise stipulated in the condominium plan, the centre of the floor, wall or ceiling, as the case may be.

RSA 1980 cC-22 s7;1996 c12 s5

Certificates to accompany condominium plan

10(1) Every plan presented for registration as a condominium plan shall be endorsed with or accompanied with

- (a) a certificate of a land surveyor stating
 - (i) that the boundaries of the parcel have been established or re-established in accordance with the Surveys Act,
 - (ii) that there are not any projections from other property infringing on the external boundaries of the parcel, or if there are projections from other property infringing on the external boundaries of the parcel, that an appropriate easement exists in respect of the parcel for those projections, and
 - (iii) where there is a building shown on the plan, that the building is within the external surface boundaries of the parcel that is the subject of the plan and, if any projections project beyond those external boundaries, that an appropriate easement has been granted as an appurtenance to the parcel,
- and
- (b) where there is a building shown on the plan that is to contain units,
 - (i) a certificate of a professional engineer, professional technologist, registered architect or land surveyor stating, with respect to that building,
 - (A) that the units shown in the plan are the same as those existing, and
 - (B) whether there are any post tensioned cables located anywhere on or within that building or the property on which that building is located,

and

- (ii) a certificate of the municipal authority or of a person designated by the municipal authority stating that
 - (A) the proposed division of the building, as illustrated in the plan, has been approved by the municipal authority,
 - (B) the number of parking spaces for visitors and persons with disabilities illustrated in the plan, if any, meets the requirements of the municipal authority, and
 - (C) the parking spaces for visitors and persons with disabilities illustrated in the plan, if any, are located on common property or a unit labelled parking for visitors or persons with disabilities in accordance with section 8(1)(1.1).

(2) If an application is made for a certificate under subsection (1)(b)(ii), the municipal authority

- (a) may, with respect to a building that was constructed prior to August 1, 1966 or for which the building permit was issued prior to August 1, 1966, prohibit the issue of the certificate if it considers it proper to do so, and
- (b) shall, with respect to a building for which a building permit was issued on or after August 1, 1966, direct the issue of the certificate if it is satisfied that the building conformed to
 - (i) the development scheme, development control bylaw, zoning bylaw or land use bylaw, as the case may be, and
 - (ii) any permit issued under that scheme or bylaw,

that existed at the time the building permit was issued.

RSA 2000 cC-22 s10;2014 c10 s4

Duties of a Developer

Appointment of interim board

10.1(1) A developer shall, no later than 30 days after registration of a condominium plan, appoint an interim board of directors and file at the land titles office a notice in the prescribed form stating the names and addresses of the members of the interim board.

(2) A developer shall, following a change in

- (a) the membership of the interim board,
- (b) the name of a member of the interim board, or

- (c) the address of a member of the interim board,

promptly file at the land titles office a notice in the prescribed form stating the change.

(3) The interim board holds office until a board is elected pursuant to section 29.

(4) Every member of the interim board, in exercising the powers and performing the duties of the office of member of the interim board, shall

- (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation, and
- (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

(5) A resolution adopted by the interim board must be recorded and is valid even if no meeting is held on the resolution.

(6) The interim board of directors shall make reasonable efforts to pursue any remedies or claims under warranties or insurance policies respecting the real and personal property of the corporation, the common property and managed property.

(7) Where a member of the interim board has a material interest in any agreement, arrangement or transaction to which the corporation is or is to become a party, that person

- (a) shall declare to the interim board that person's interest in the agreement, arrangement or transaction,
- (b) shall not vote in respect of any matter respecting that agreement, arrangement or transaction, and
- (c) shall not be counted when determining whether a quorum exists when a vote or other action is taken in respect of the agreement, arrangement or transaction.

(8) Subsection (7) does not apply to an agreement, arrangement or transaction in which the member of the interim board has a material interest if that material interest exists only by virtue of that member of the interim board owning a unit.

(9) All acts done in good faith by an interim board are, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any member of the interim board, as valid as if the member had been properly appointed or had properly continued in office.

2014 c10 s5

Developer's obligation to apply for certificates, approvals and permits

10.2 Where a developer is under an obligation to apply for a certificate, approval or permit required by law that relates to the real property of a corporation, the common property or managed property, that obligation does not expire by virtue of

- (a) the registration of the condominium plan,
- (b) the election of a board pursuant to section 29, or
- (c) the developer no longer being an owner.

2014 c10 s5

Payment of contributions

10.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in a bylaw, where units are located in a building in which one or more units have been transferred to a purchaser, the developer must pay contributions in respect of each unit in the building it owns on the same basis as owners of other units are required to pay contributions.

2014 c10 s5

Fair dealing

11 Every agreement to sell a unit imposes on the developer selling the unit and the purchaser of the unit a duty of fair dealing with respect to the entering into, performance and enforcement of the agreement.

1996 c12 s7

Sale of units by developers

12(1) A developer shall not sell or agree to sell a unit or a proposed unit unless the developer has delivered to the purchaser a copy of

- (a) the purchase agreement;
- (b) the condominium plan or proposed condominium plan;
- (c) the bylaws or proposed bylaws;
- (d) any management agreement or proposed management agreement;
- (e) any recreational agreement or proposed recreational agreement;

- (f) the lease of the parcel if the parcel on which the unit is located, or the proposed unit will be located, is held under a lease and the certificate of title to the unit or proposed unit has been or will be issued under section 5(1)(b);
 - (g) in respect of a mortgage that affects, or a proposed mortgage that will affect, the title to the unit or proposed unit after the certificate of title is issued in the name of the purchaser,
 - (i) a copy of the mortgage or proposed mortgage, or
 - (ii) where the purchaser is to assume the mortgage or proposed mortgage, a statement containing the information referred to in subsection (2);
 - (h) any mortgage or financial encumbrance registered against real property owned or to be owned by the corporation;

 - (j) if the unit is a conversion unit,
 - (i) a summary, in the prescribed form, of the deficiencies identified in the building assessment report prepared under section 21.1 or under the New Home Buyer Protection Act, as the case may be, and
 - (ii) the reserve fund report required by the regulations;
 - (k) a statement prepared in accordance with the regulations setting out a fixed date or range of dates by which the purchaser may commence occupancy of the unit;
 - (l) the most recent budget or proposed budget of the corporation prepared in accordance with the regulations;
 - (m) any other information or documents prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The statement to be provided under subsection (1)(g)(ii) must contain the following information:
- (a) the maximum principal amount available under the mortgage;
 - (b) the maximum monthly payment that may be paid under the mortgage;

- (c) the amortization period;
- (d) the term;
- (e) the interest rate or the formula, if any, for determining the interest rate;
- (f) the prepayment privileges, if any.

(3) A purchaser of a unit may, within 10 days of receiving a summary of the deficiencies identified in the building assessment report referred to in subsection (1)(j)(i), request in writing a copy of the building assessment report prepared under section 21.1 or under the New Home Buyer Protection Act, as the case may be, and the developer shall provide a copy of the report to the purchaser within 10 days of receiving the request.

Requirements of purchase agreement

12.2 A developer who enters into a purchase agreement shall include in the purchase agreement the following:

- (a) a notification in the prescribed form stating as follows:

“The purchaser may, without incurring any liability for doing so, rescind this agreement within 10 days of the later of the date the purchaser receives all of the information and documents required to be delivered to the purchaser under section 12 of the Condominium Property Act and the date the purchaser signs the purchase agreement. This agreement is governed by the Condominium Property Act and if there is a conflict between this agreement and the Act, the Act prevails.”;
- (b) where the units and the common property are not substantially completed at the time that the purchase agreement is entered into, a description, drawing or photograph showing
 - (i) where there is a building, the interior finishing of and all major improvements to the common property located within a building, and real and personal property intended to be acquired by the corporation,

- (ii) all major improvements to the common property, other than those to which subclause (i) applies,
 - (iii) any significant utility installations, major easement areas, retaining walls and other similar significant features,
 - (iv) the recreational facilities, equipment and other amenities to be available for use by the persons residing in or on the residential units,
 - (v) the equipment to be used for the maintenance of the real and personal property of the corporation, the common property and managed property,
 - (vi) the location of roadways, walkways, fences, parking areas and recreational facilities,
 - (vii) the landscaping, and
 - (viii) where there is a building, the exterior finishing of the building as it will exist when the developer has fulfilled the developer's obligations under the purchase agreement;
- (c) the amount or estimated amount of the monthly unit contributions based on the budget or proposed budget referred to in section 12(1)(l);
 - (d) the unit factor of the unit and the basis of unit factor apportionment for all units included in the condominium plan or proposed condominium plan.

Rescission of purchase agreement

13(1) A purchaser may rescind a purchase agreement by providing written notice to the developer within 10 days of the later of

- (a) the date the purchaser receives all of the information and documents required to be delivered to the purchaser under section 12, and
- (b) the date the purchaser signs the purchase agreement.

(2) If a purchase agreement is rescinded under subsection (1), the developer shall, within 15 days from the developer's receipt of a written notice of the rescission from the purchaser, return to the purchaser all of the money paid in respect of the purchase of the unit.

Material change before purchaser takes possession

13.1(1) If at any time before a purchaser takes possession of a unit there is a material change in the information and documents provided by the developer to the purchaser under section 12, the developer shall deliver a written notice to the purchaser.

(2) The notice required under subsection (1) must clearly identify all changes that in the reasonable belief of the developer may be material changes, and summarize the particulars of them.

(3) The developer shall in accordance with the regulations deliver the notice required under subsection (1) to the purchaser within a reasonable time after the material change occurs and, in any event, before the day the purchaser takes possession of the unit.

(4) Where a material change referred to in subsection (1) occurs, the purchaser may exercise any of the remedies provided under the regulations.

Payments held in trust

14(1) For the purposes of this section,

- (a) “common property” includes facilities and property that are intended for common use by the owners notwithstanding that the facilities or property may be located in or comprise a unit or any part of a unit;
- (b) “cost consultant” means a person who meets the requirements of the regulations to be a cost consultant or is otherwise designated as a cost consultant pursuant to the regulations;
- (c) “developer” includes any person who, on behalf of a developer, acts in respect of the sale of a unit or a proposed unit or receives money paid by or on behalf of a purchaser of a unit or a proposed unit pursuant to a purchase agreement;
- (d) “financial institution” means a bank, treasury branch, credit union or trust corporation;

- (e) “substantially completed” means, subject to the regulations,
 - (i) in the case of a unit, when the unit is ready for its intended use, and
 - (ii) in the case of related common property, when the related common property is ready for its intended use.

(2) A reference in this section to “related common property” is, in relation to a unit, a reference to the following:

- (a) the common property or a portion of the common property that is necessarily incidental to the completion of the unit;
- (b) the common property or a portion of the common property that is necessarily incidental to the intended use of the unit;
- (c) in the case of a unit other than a bare land unit, the common property or a portion of the common property consisting of
 - (i) utilities required to service the unit and the common property,
 - (ii) a facility providing for reasonable access to or entrance into the unit,
 - (iii) a facility providing for reasonable access to highways, municipal roads or streets,
 - (iv) waste removal facilities or other facilities for handling waste, and
 - (v) any other improvements or areas
 - (A) designated by the regulations, or
 - (B) required under any other Act or regulations,that are necessarily incidental to the intended use of the unit;
- (d) in the case of a unit other than a bare land unit, in addition to the common property referred to in clauses (a) to (c), any common property or any portion of the common property that has been represented in the purchase agreement by the developer as being or as going to be available for the use of the owner of the unit and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may include one or more of the following:
 - (i) roadways, parking areas and walkways;

- (ii) fences or similar structures;
- (iii) landscaped areas and site lighting;
- (e) in the case of a bare land unit, the common property or a portion of the common property consisting of
 - (i) a facility providing for reasonable access to or entrance into the unit,
 - (ii) a facility providing for reasonable access to highways, municipal roads or streets, and
 - (iii) any other improvements or areas
 - (A) designated by the regulations, or
 - (B) required under any other Act or regulations,that are necessarily incidental to the intended use of the unit;
- (f) in the case of a bare land unit, in addition to the common property referred to in clauses (a), (b) and (e), any common property or any portion of the common property that has been represented in the purchase agreement by the developer as being or as going to be available for the use of the owner of the unit and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may include one or more of the following:
 - (i) utilities required to service the unit and the common property;
 - (ii) roadways, parking areas and walkways;
 - (iii) fences or similar structures;
 - (iv) landscaped areas and site lighting;
 - (v) waste removal facilities or other facilities for handling waste.

(3) A developer or prescribed trustee, as the case may be, shall hold in trust all money, other than rents or security deposits, paid by the purchaser of a unit up to the time that the certificate of title to the unit is issued in the name of the purchaser in accordance with the purchase agreement.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), if a unit is not substantially completed, the developer or prescribed trustee, as the case may be, shall hold in trust money, other than rents or security deposits, paid by the purchaser of the unit so that the amount of money held in trust will be sufficient, when combined with the unpaid portion of the purchase price of the unit, if any, to pay for the cost of substantially completing the construction of the unit as determined by a cost consultant.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), if the related common property is not substantially completed, the developer or prescribed trustee, as the case may be, shall hold in trust money, other than rents or security deposits, paid by the purchaser of the unit so that the amount of money held in trust will be sufficient, when combined with the unpaid portion of the purchase price of the unit, if any, to pay for the proportionate cost of substantially completing the construction of the related common property as determined by a cost consultant based on the unit factors of the units sharing the same related common property.

(6) A developer who receives money that is to be held in trust under this section shall, within 3 days of receiving it, exclusive of holidays and Saturdays, deposit the money into a trust account maintained in a financial institution in Alberta.

(6.1) A trust account referred to in subsection (6) must be maintained by a prescribed trustee.

(7) A developer or prescribed trustee, as the case may be, who is in possession or control of money that is to be held in trust under this section shall ensure that the money is kept on deposit in Alberta.

(7.1) A developer or prescribed trustee, as the case may be, who is in possession or control of money that is to be held in trust under this section shall comply with the requirements respecting trust accounts established by the regulations.

(8) If money is being held in trust under this section and the purchaser of the unit takes possession of or occupies the unit prior to the certificate of title being issued in the name of the purchaser, the interest earned on that money, if any, from the day that the purchaser takes possession or occupies the unit to the day that the certificate of title is issued in the name of the purchaser is to be applied against the purchase price of the unit.

(9) Subject to subsection (8), the developer is entitled to the interest earned on money held in trust under this section.

(10) Subject to subsection (11), this section does not apply in respect of money paid to a developer under a purchase agreement if that money is held, secured or otherwise dealt with under the provisions of a plan, agreement, scheme or arrangement approved by the Minister that provides for the receipt, handling and disbursing of all or a portion of that money or indemnifies against loss of all or a portion of that money or both.

(11) Where

- (a) money is to be held, secured or otherwise dealt with under the provisions of a plan, agreement, scheme or arrangement referred to in subsection (10), and
- (b) an amount of that money that is to be held, secured or otherwise dealt with exceeds the limits of the protection against loss provided for under the plan, agreement, scheme or arrangement, that amount that exceeds the limits of the protection against loss under the plan, agreement, scheme or arrangement is to be held in trust under this section.

(12) Notwithstanding subsections (3) to (11),

- (a) where in relation to a unit or related common property, or both, a developer is required to provide security under another enactment for the purpose of completing construction, and
- (b) that construction referred to in clause (a) is the same or substantially the same construction with respect to a unit or related common property in respect of which money is to be held in trust under this section, the developer may, subject to the regulations, reduce the amount of money to be held in trust under this section by the amount of the security provided under the enactment referred to in clause (a).

(13) Where, with respect to a unit or related common property, or both,

- (a) money is held in trust under this section or held, secured or otherwise dealt with pursuant to the provisions of a plan, agreement, scheme or arrangement approved under subsection (10), and
- (b) the developer has not met the requirements under which that money is to be paid out of the trust or otherwise disbursed, the corporation or an interested party may apply to the Court for an order for that money to be paid out for the purposes of substantially completing the unit or related common property, as the case may be, or to be used as directed by the Court.

(14) On hearing an application under subsection (13), the Court may do one or more of the following:

- (a) give directions as to whom the money is to be paid;
- (b) give directions as to how the money is to be used for the purposes of substantially completing the unit or related common property, or both, as the case may be;
- (c) give directions as to how the money is to be used or otherwise disposed of if it is not to be used for the purposes referred to in clause (b);
- (d) appoint an administrator, a receiver or a receiver and manager for the purpose of carrying out any matters dealt with pursuant to the application;
- (e) give any other directions, not referred to in clauses (a) to (d), that the Court considers appropriate in the circumstances;
- (f) award costs.

(15) Once the unit or the related common property, or both, as the case may be, in respect of which money is being held in trust under this section are, as determined by a cost consultant, substantially completed, any money remaining in trust may be paid to the developer.

Termination of Agreements

Developer's management agreements

17(1) In this section, “developer’s management agreement” means a management agreement that was entered into by a corporation at a time when its board consisted of directors who were appointed or elected when persons who were not at arm’s length from the developer owned or held units representing more than 50% of the total unit factors for all the units.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a corporation may, despite any term to the contrary in a developer's management agreement or a collateral agreement, terminate a developer's management agreement at any time after its board first consists of directors who were elected when persons who were at arm's length from the developer owned or held units representing more than 50% of the total unit factors for all the units.

(3) A developer's management agreement

- (a) may not be terminated under subsection (2) without cause until one year has elapsed from the day that the agreement was entered into, except when the agreement permits termination at an earlier date, and
- (b) may only be terminated under subsection (2) on the corporation giving 60 days' written notice, or any shorter notice specified in the agreement, to the other party to the agreement of its intention to terminate the agreement, and the corporation is not liable to the other party to the agreement by reason only of the agreement being terminated under this section.

Modification of Condominium Plans

Redivision of unit

20(1) Any owner or owners may, with the approval of the municipal authority, redivide the owner's or owners' units by registering a condominium plan relating to the unit or units so redivided in the manner provided by this Act for the registration of condominium plans.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), any owner or owners may, in accordance with the regulations and without the necessity of registering a condominium plan, modify an existing condominium plan by amending that condominium plan, if the modification consists only of the consolidation of 2 or more units that have adjacent walls, ceilings, floors or boundaries between them.

(3) Except as provided in this section, the provisions of this Act relating to condominium plans apply with all necessary modifications to a redivision of units.

(4) Notwithstanding section 25, the owners of units in a condominium plan of redivision are not a corporation, but are, on the date of registration of the condominium plan of redivision, members of the corporation formed on registration of the original condominium plan.

(5) On registration of a condominium plan of redivision, units comprised in it are subject to the burden and have the benefit of any easements affecting those units in the original condominium plan that are included in the condominium plan of redivision.

(6) The schedule endorsed on a condominium plan of redivision, as required by section 8(1)(j), shall apportion among the units the unit factor or factors for the unit or units in the original condominium plan that are included in the redivision.

(7) Before registering a proposed condominium plan of redivision, the Registrar shall amend the original condominium plan in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

(8) On registration of a condominium plan of redivision, the land comprised in it shall not be dealt with by reference to units in the original condominium plan.

(9) On registration of a condominium plan of redivision, the owner of any parking space for visitors or persons with disabilities illustrated as a unit in the condominium plan shall transfer the title to the parking space to the corporation.

(10) Where the owner does not transfer the title to a parking space for visitors or persons with disabilities in accordance with subsection (9), the corporation

Easements against owner

23(1) After the registration of a condominium plan, there is implied in respect of each unit shown in it,

- (a) as against the owner of the unit, an easement, to which the unit is subject, for the subjacent and lateral support of the common property and of every other unit capable of enjoying support,
- (b) as against the owner of the unit, easements, to which the unit is subject, for the passage or provision of water, sewerage, drainage, gas, electricity, garbage, artificially heated or cooled air and other services, including telephone, radio and television services, through or by means of any pipes, wires, cables or ducts for the time being existing within the unit, as appurtenant to the common property and also to every other unit capable of enjoying those easements, and
- (c) in the case of a unit located in a building, as against the owner of the unit, an easement, to which the unit is subject, to provide shelter to the common property and to every other unit capable of enjoying the shelter.

(2) When an easement is implied by this section, the owner of any utility service who is providing the owner's service to the parcel, or to any unit on it, is entitled to the benefit of any of those easements that are appropriate to the proper provision of that service, but not to the exclusion of the owner of any other utility service.

Right of entry

24.1(1) Except as otherwise permitted in this section, no person may enter a unit under section 24(2) without the consent of the owner of the unit or of an adult person lawfully on the premises that comprise the unit.

(2) A person may enter a unit under section 24(2) without consent or notice if that person has reasonable grounds to believe that an emergency requires that person to enter the premises to replace, renew or restore any thing that the dominant tenement is entitled to benefit from.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a person may enter a unit under section 24(2) without consent but after notice to the owner or person in possession of the unit to replace, renew or restore any thing that the dominant tenement is entitled to benefit from.

(4) A person is not entitled to enter a unit under subsection (3) unless

- (a) the notice is served on the owner of the unit or an adult person in possession of the unit at least 24 hours before the time of entry,

- (b) the entry is made on a day that is not
 - (i) a holiday, except that the person may enter on a Sunday if the day of religious worship of the adult person in possession of the unit is not Sunday and that adult person has provided to the person wishing to enter the unit a written notice of that adult person's day of religious worship, or
 - (ii) the day of religious worship of the adult person in possession of the unit if that day is not Sunday and that person has provided to the person wishing to enter the unit a written notice of that day,

and

- (c) the entry is between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m.

(5) A notice under subsection (3) must

- (a) be in writing,
- (b) state the reason for the entry, and
- (c) name a date and time of entry that comply with subsection (4).

Condominium Corporation

Condominium corporation

25(1) On the registration of a condominium plan, there is constituted a corporation under the name "Condominium Corporation No. ____" and the number to be specified is the number given to the plan on registration.

(2) A corporation consists of all those persons

- (a) who are owners of units in the parcel to which the condominium plan applies, or
- (b) who are entitled to the parcel when the condominium arrangement is terminated pursuant to section 60 or 61.

(3) Without limiting the powers of the corporation under this or any other Act, a corporation may

- (a) sue for and in respect of any damage or injury to the common property caused by any person, whether an owner or not, and

(b) be sued in respect of any matter connected with the parcel for which the owners are jointly liable.

Voting Rights

Voting rights

26(1) The voting rights of the owner of a unit are determined by the unit factor for the owner's unit.

(2) When an owner's interest is subject to a registered mortgage, a power of voting conferred on the owner by this Act or the bylaws may be exercised as follows:

- (a) first, by the mortgagee, if any, who is first entitled in priority if that mortgagee has notified the corporation of the mortgage in writing and is present at the meeting at which the vote is being conducted;
- (b) second, by the owner;
- (c) third and subsequently, in order of their priority among themselves, by any other mortgagees who are subsequent in priority to the mortgagee referred to in clause (a) if the subsequent mortgagee wishing to exercise the power of voting has notified the corporation of the mortgage in writing and is present at the meeting at which the vote is conducted.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply unless the mortgagee has given written notice of the mortgagee's mortgage to the corporation at the corporation's address for service.

(4) An owner or mortgagee, as the case may be, may exercise the owner's or mortgagee's right to vote personally or by proxy.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this section, neither an owner nor a mortgagee is entitled to exercise the power of voting conferred on the owner by this Act or the regulations where

- (a) any contribution payable in respect of the owner's unit, or
- (b) any other obligation owing to the corporation in respect of the owner's unit or the common property, is in arrears for more than 30 days prior to the day that the power of voting may be exercised.

(6) Notwithstanding that anything under this Act or the bylaws may require a meeting of the corporation to be convened for the purpose of allowing the owners or other persons permitted under this Act or the bylaws to exercise the power of voting, instead of a meeting being convened for the purpose of exercising the powers of voting,

- (a) in the case of an ordinary resolution, the ordinary resolution may be passed by being signed as described in section 1(1)(r), and
- (b) in the case of a special resolution, the special resolution may be passed by being agreed to in writing as described in section 1(1)(x).

Voting where owner incapable

27(1) Any powers of voting conferred by this Act or the bylaws may be exercised

- (a) in the case of an owner who is a minor, by the guardian or trustee of the minor's estate or a trustee of the minor's property appointed by an order under the Minors' Property Act or, if no guardian or trustee has been appointed, by the Public Trustee, or
- (b) in the case of an owner who is for any reason unable to exercise control over the owner's property, by the person who for the time being is authorized by law to exercise control over that property.

(2) If the Court, on application by the corporation or by an owner, is satisfied that there is no person capable, willing or reasonably available to vote in respect of a unit, the Court

- (a) shall, in cases when a special resolution is required by this Act, and
- (b) may, in its discretion, in any other case, appoint the Public Trustee or some other person for the purpose of exercising the powers of voting under this Act and the bylaws as the Court determines.

(3) On making an appointment under this section, the Court may make any order it considers necessary or expedient to give effect to the appointment.

Board of a Corporation

Board of directors

28(1) A corporation shall have a board of directors that is to be constituted as provided by the bylaws of the corporation.

(1.1) At least 2/3 of the membership of the board of directors of a corporation must be unit owners or mortgagees unless the bylaws provide otherwise.

(2) Every member of a board, in exercising the powers and performing the duties of the office of member of the board, shall

- (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation, and
- (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

(3) Where a member of the board has a material interest in any agreement, arrangement or transaction to which the corporation is or is to become a party, that person

- (a) shall declare to the board that person's interest in the agreement, arrangement or transaction,
- (b) shall not vote in respect of any matter respecting that agreement, arrangement or transaction, and
- (c) shall not be counted when determining whether a quorum exists when a vote or other action is taken in respect of the agreement, arrangement or transaction.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to an agreement, arrangement or transaction in which the member of the board has a material interest if that material interest exists only by virtue of that member of the board owning a unit.

(5) A corporation shall, within 30 days from the conclusion of the corporation's annual general meeting, file at the land titles office a notice in the prescribed form stating the names and addresses of the members of the board.

(6) A corporation shall, following a change in

- (a) the membership of the board,
- (b) the name of a member of the board, or
- (c) the address of a member of the board,

promptly file at the land titles office a notice in the prescribed form stating the change.

(7) Repealed 2014 c10 s18.

(8) A person who

- (a) is a bona fide third party dealing at arm's length with the corporation, and
- (b) does not have notice of a restriction or direction referred to in section 28.2(1), is not liable for or otherwise affected or bound by any breach of or failure to follow that restriction or direction by the corporation.

(9) All acts done in good faith by a board are, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the election or appointment or continuance in office of any member of the board, as valid as if the member had been properly elected or appointed or had properly continued in office.

Removal or vacating of office of a member of the board

28.1(1) A person ceases to be a member of the board if the member

- (a) becomes a bankrupt as defined in the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada),
- (b) is more than 60 days in arrears in payment of any contribution required to be made by the member as an owner,
- (c) is more than 60 days in default of a judgment by a court of any money owing to the corporation,
- (d) is or becomes a represented adult as defined in the Adult Guardianship and Trusteeship Act,
- (e) is convicted of an indictable offence for which the member is liable to imprisonment for a term of not less than 2 years,

- (f) resigns the member's office by serving notice in writing on the corporation, or
- (g) is removed under subsection (2).

(2) A corporation may by ordinary resolution remove a member of the board before the expiration of the member's term of office and appoint another individual in the member's place to hold that office for the remainder of the term.

Meetings of the Corporation

Convening of meeting to elect first board

29(1) When a developer registers a condominium plan, the developer shall within 90 days from the day that the certificates of title to units representing 50% of unit factors have been issued in the name of the purchasers convene a meeting of the corporation at which a board must be elected.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if the developer does not convene a meeting of the corporation under subsection (1) within the time period determined under subsection (1), an owner may convene the meeting.

Annual general meetings

30(1) The first annual general meeting of the corporation must be convened by the board no later than 12 months after the registration of the condominium plan.

(2) Subsequent annual general meetings must be convened annually no later than 15 months after the immediately preceding annual general meeting.

(3) Subject to the regulations, written notice of an annual general meeting must be provided to each owner and any mortgagee who has given written notice under section 26(3) no less than 14 days prior to the day on which the meeting is to be convened.

- (4) Subject to the regulations, the corporation shall
- (a) prepare financial statements, in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, for the corporation's preceding fiscal year, an annual report on the reserve fund and an annual budget for the corporation's fiscal year that immediately follows the corporation's preceding fiscal year, and
 - (b) no less than 14 days prior to the day on which the annual general meeting is to be convened, provide copies of the financial statements, an annual report on the reserve fund and the annual budget to each owner and any mortgagee who has given written notice under section 26(3).

2014 c10 s21

Special general meetings

30.1(1) The board may, whenever it considers it appropriate to do so, convene a special general meeting of the corporation by providing written notice to each owner, subject to the regulations, no less than 14 days prior to the day on which the meeting is to be convened.

(2) The board shall, on the written request of owners whose units represent not less than 15% of the total unit factors for all the units, convene a special general meeting of the corporation by providing written notice to each owner no less than 14 days prior to the day on which the meeting is to be convened.

(3) A request under subsection (2) must include the nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting.

(4) A special general meeting under subsection (2) must be convened within 30 days of receiving the request, and if the board does not convene a meeting within that time period, the owners may convene the meeting.

(5) A notice for a special general meeting must include the purpose for which the meeting is being convened, including the proposed wording of any resolution.

Meetings of Board or CorporationManner and venue

31(1) Unless a corporation's bylaws expressly provide otherwise,

- (a) a person entitled to attend a meeting of the corporation or of its board of directors may attend the meeting by electronic means,
- (b) a meeting of the corporation or of its board of directors may be held entirely by electronic means,
- (c) a person attending a meeting by electronic means under clause (a) or (b) who is entitled to vote at the meeting may vote by any electronic, telephonic or other method that the corporation has made available for that purpose, and
- (d) a person attending a meeting by electronic means under clause (a) or (b) is deemed for all purposes under this Act to be present in person at the meeting.

(2) Meetings that are not held entirely by electronic means must be held at a location within the municipality in which the units are located, unless an ordinary resolution to hold the meetings in another location is passed at a general meeting of the corporation.

RSA 2000 cC-22 s31;2014 c10 s21;2021 c3 s3

BylawsBylaws

32(1) The bylaws shall regulate the corporation and provide for the control, management and administration of the units, the real and personal property of the corporation, the common property and managed property.

(2) The owners of the units and anyone in possession of a unit are bound by the bylaws.

(3) Any bylaw may be amended, repealed or replaced by a special resolution.

(4) An amendment, repeal or replacement of a bylaw does not take effect until

- (a) the corporation files a copy of it with the Registrar, and
- (b) the Registrar has made a memorandum of the filing on the condominium plan.

(5) No bylaw operates to prohibit or restrict the devolution of units or any transfer, lease, mortgage or other dealing with them or to destroy or modify any easement implied or created by this Act.

(6) The bylaws bind the corporation and the owners to the same extent as if the bylaws had been signed and sealed by the corporation and by each owner and contained covenants on the part of each owner with every other owner and with the corporation to observe and perform all the provisions of the bylaws.

Rules

32.1(1) Subject to the regulations, the board may, by resolution, make, amend or repeal rules respecting procedures used in the administration of the corporation or the real and personal property of the corporation, the common property and managed property.

(2) The rules must be reasonable and consistent with this Act, the regulations and the bylaws.

(3) The rules must not restrict the uses of units.

(4) Subject to the regulations, the board must inform owners and tenants of any rules made, amended or repealed.

(5) If a rule or a proposed rule is inconsistent with this Act, the regulations or the bylaws, this Act, the regulations or the bylaws, as the case may be, prevail.

2014 c10 s23

Initial bylaws

33 On the registration of a condominium plan, the bylaws of the corporation are the bylaws set out in the regulations, and those bylaws remain in force in respect of that corporation until they are repealed or replaced by special resolution.

RSA 2000 cC-22 s33;2014 c10 s24

Application of initial bylaws to pre-existing corporations

34 Notwithstanding that, immediately before the coming into force of this section, a corporation was regulated by the bylaws set out in Appendix 1 or 2 of the Condominium Property Act as it read immediately before the coming into force of this section, that corporation is deemed on the coming into force of this section to be regulated by the bylaws set out in the regulations.

RSA 2000 cC-22 s34;2014 c10 s24

Conflict with bylaws

34.1(1) If there is a conflict between a bylaw and this Act or the regulations, this Act or the regulations, as the case may be, prevail.

(2) Notwithstanding section 32(3), in order to bring the bylaws in conformity with this Act and the regulations, a corporation, no later than one year after the coming into force of this section, may by ordinary resolution amend any of its bylaws to ensure that its bylaws do not conflict with this Act or the regulations.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to amending an existing bylaw that is not in conflict with this Act or the regulations nor to adding any new bylaws.

2014 c10 s25

Sanctions for failure to comply with bylaws

35(1) A corporation may by bylaw establish monetary or other sanctions that may be imposed on owners, tenants and occupants who fail to comply with the bylaws.

(2) A bylaw under which sanctions may be imposed must

- (a) set out the sanctions that may be imposed, and
- (b) in the case of monetary sanctions, set out the amount of the monetary sanctions or the range of monetary sanctions that may be imposed.

(3) A bylaw under which sanctions may be imposed may be general or specific in its application.

(4) A sanction imposed under a bylaw made under this section must be reasonable in the circumstances for which it is imposed.

(5) Where a person fails to abide by a sanction or to pay to the corporation a monetary sanction imposed under a bylaw, the corporation may proceed under section 36 to enforce the sanction.

(6) A sanction may not be imposed that has the effect of prohibiting or restricting the devolution of units or any transfer, lease, mortgage or other dealing with the units, or of destroying or modifying any easement implied or created by this Act.

(7) A monetary sanction imposed under a bylaw made under this section must not exceed the amount prescribed by the regulations.

Enforcement of sanctions

36(1) If a person fails to comply with a sanction or to pay a monetary sanction imposed pursuant to a bylaw, the corporation may, in respect of the contravention,

- (a) take proceedings under Part 4 of the Provincial Court Act and the regulations under that Act to recover from the person
 - (i) a monetary sanction, or
 - (ii) damages, in the case of any other sanction, in an amount not exceeding the amount that may be granted in damages under the Provincial Court Act and the regulations under that Act, or
 - (b) take proceedings in the Court of Queen's Bench to recover from the person
 - (i) a monetary sanction, or
 - (ii) damages, in the case of any other sanction.
- (2) In an action under subsection (1), the corporation must establish to the satisfaction of the court hearing the matter that
- (a) the bylaws relating to the matter before the court were properly enacted, and
 - (b) the bylaw for which the sanction was imposed was contravened by the defendant.

(3) On hearing the matter, the court may do one or more of the following:

- (a) give judgment against the defendant in the amount being sued for or any lesser amount as appears appropriate in the circumstances;
- (b) in the case of proceedings taken in the Court of Queen's Bench, grant injunctive or other relief that the Court considers appropriate in the circumstances;

- (c) dismiss the action;
 - (d) make an award as to costs as appears appropriate in the circumstances.
- (4) For the purposes of an action commenced under subsection (1)(a)(ii) or (b)(ii), once the court is satisfied that the requirements of subsection (2) have been met, damages are deemed to have been suffered by the corporation.
- (5) Where a corporation takes proceedings under this section, it is entitled to claim from the defendant the corporation's legal expenses incurred in respect of the proceedings.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a), a copy of a bylaw that is certified by the Registrar as being a true copy of the bylaw filed at the land titles office is proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary,
- (a) of the contents of the bylaw, and
 - (b) that the bylaw was properly enacted.
- (7) An action taken against a person under this section does not restrict, limit or derogate from any other remedy that an owner or the corporation may have against that person.
- (8) A caveat in respect of a monetary sanction or other debt to a corporation, other than a contribution under section 39, may be registered against the certificate of title of a unit only pursuant to a writ of enforcement.

Powers and Duties of Corporation

Control and management

- 37(1) A corporation is responsible for the enforcement of its bylaws and the control, management and administration of its real and personal property, the common property and managed property.
- (2) Without restricting the generality of subsection (1), the duties of a corporation include the following:
- (a) to keep in a state of good and serviceable repair and properly maintain the real and personal property of the corporation, the common property and managed property;

(b) to comply with notices or orders by any municipal authority or public authority requiring repairs to or work to be done in respect of the parcel.

(3) A corporation may by a special resolution acquire or dispose of an interest in real property.

(4) A corporation may, subject to the regulations, borrow money for the purpose of carrying out the powers and duties of the corporation under this section.

(5) Money borrowed by the corporation under subsection (4) must be used only for the purpose for which it was borrowed.

Reserve fund

38(1) Subject to the regulations, a corporation shall, from funds levied under section 39(1)(a) or under section 39.1, establish and maintain a reserve fund that is reasonably sufficient to provide for major repairs and replacement of the following, where the repair or replacement is of a nature that does not normally occur annually:

- (a) any real and personal property of the corporation;
- (b) the common property;
- (c) managed property.

(1.01) Notwithstanding subsection (1), funds from the reserve fund may be used for

- (a) a reserve fund study and reserve fund report required by the regulations,
- (b) any other report prepared by an expert examining the condition of the real and personal property of the corporation, the common property and managed property, and
- (c) any other purpose provided for in the regulations.

(1.1) If, before the coming into force of subsection (1)(c) as enacted by section 1(2)(a) of the Statutes Amendment Act, 2013, a corporation was required by bylaw to repair and replace property of an owner of a bare land unit, the collection and expenditure of funds to repair and replace that property are valid if

- (a) the collection and expenditure occurred on or after the date the bylaw took effect under this Act, and

- (b) the collection and expenditure would have been in compliance with subsection (1) if subsection (1)(c) as enacted by section 1(2)(a) of the Statutes Amendment Act, 2013 had been in force at the time the collection and expenditure occurred.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), funds shall not be taken from a reserve fund for the purpose of making capital improvements unless

- (a) the removal of funds for that purpose is authorized by a special resolution or is necessary to maintain property referred to in subsection (1) to comply with health, building and maintenance and occupancy standards as required by law, and
- (b) there will be sufficient funds remaining in the reserve fund to meet the requirements of subsection (1).

(3) The money in the capital replacement reserve fund of the corporation is an asset of the corporation and no part of that money shall be refunded or distributed to any owner of a unit except where the owners and the property cease to be governed by this Act.

(4) For the purposes of this section and section 39.1, the following are not capital improvements:

- (a) the replacement of existing real and personal property of the corporation, the common property or managed property with
 - (i) the contemporary equivalent of an obsolete property, or
 - (ii) a lower cost equivalent of the existing property;
- (b) any other replacement prescribed by the regulations.

Operating account

38.1 Subject to the regulations, a corporation shall, from funds levied under section 39(1)(a) or (b), establish and maintain an operating account to be used to provide sufficient funds for

- (a) the control, management and administration of the real and personal property of the corporation, the common property and managed property, and
- (b) the payment of any other obligation of the corporation, that are not required to be paid out of the reserve fund.

Contributions

39(1) A board may by resolution

- (a) determine from time to time the amounts to be raised for the purposes of the operating account and the reserve fund and may raise those amounts by levying contributions on the owners at regular intervals
 - (i) in proportion to the unit factors of the owners' respective units, or
 - (ii) subject to the regulations, and if provided for in the bylaws, on a basis other than in proportion to the unit factors of the owners' respective units;
- (b) determine from time to time amounts to be raised by special levy and raise those amounts in accordance with section 39.1.

(2) A contribution shall not include any amount for the purpose of collecting from an individual owner

- (a) a monetary sanction under a bylaw made under section 35(1),
- (b), (c) repealed 2013 cS-19.3 s3.

Special levy

39.1(1) A resolution of the board under section 39(1)(b) to approve a special levy must set out the following:

- (a) the purpose of the levy;
- (b) the total amount to be levied;
- (c) either
 - (i) the method of determining each unit's proportionate share of the levy by unit factor, or
 - (ii) subject to the regulations, and if provided for in the bylaws, the method for determining each unit's share of the levy on a basis other than the unit factors of the owners' respective units;

- (d) the date by which the levy is to be paid or, if the levy is payable in instalments, the dates by which the instalments are to be paid.

(2) A special levy may be levied to raise money

- (a) for the payment of unexpected and urgent maintenance, repair or replacement of the real and personal property of the corporation, common property or managed property,
- (b) to cover unexpected shortfalls in the operating account,
- (c) to increase the balance of the reserve fund to meet the requirements in a reserve fund plan required under the regulations,
- (d) subject to subsection (3), for the payment of a capital improvement,
- (e) to satisfy a judgment against the corporation, or
- (f) for any other purpose provided for in the regulations.

(3) If the purpose of the special levy is for the making of a capital improvement, a special resolution is required before the board may approve the special levy.

(4) As soon as possible after the passing of a resolution referred to in subsection (1), the board must inform each owner of the following:

- (a) the purpose of the levy;
- (b) the total amount of the levy;
- (c) the method used to determine each unit's share of the levy;
- (d) the amount of the owner's unit's share of the levy;
- (e) the date by which the levy is to be paid or, if the levy is payable in instalments, the dates by which the instalments are to be paid.

(5) If the amount collected exceeds the amount required or for any other reason is not fully used for the purpose set out in the resolution referred to in subsection (1), the corporation must pay the money into the reserve fund.

2014 c10 s30

Payment and enforcement of contributions

39.2(1) A contribution levied as provided in section 39(1)(a) is due and payable on the passing of a resolution by the board to that effect and in accordance with the terms of the resolution, and a contribution levied under section 39(1)(b) is due and payable in accordance with a resolution of the board passed under section 39(1).

(2) A contribution referred to in subsection (1), and any interest charged under section 40, may be recovered by an action for debt by the corporation

- (a) from a person who was an owner at the time when the resolution of the board was passed, and
- (b) from a person who was an owner at the time when the action was instituted, both jointly and severally.

(3) Where a contribution, including any interest owing, is not paid by the owner, the mortgagee may pay any amount owing in respect of that contribution and add that amount to the amount owing to the mortgagee under the mortgage.

(4) Where

- (a) a person other than the owner is in possession of a unit and pays rent to the owner in respect of the unit, and
- (b) contributions, including any interest owing in respect of that unit, are in arrears, the corporation may require the person in possession of the unit to pay the rent owing to the owner in respect of that unit to the corporation so that that rent can be applied against the contributions, including any interest owing, that are in arrears.

(5) Where a person in possession of a unit other than the owner pays the rent to the corporation under subsection (4), that person is deemed to have paid that rent to the owner.

(6) A corporation may file a caveat against the certificate of title to an owner's unit for the amount of a contribution levied on the owner and interest payable but unpaid by the owner.

(7) On the filing of the caveat under subsection (6), the corporation has a charge against the unit equal to the unpaid contributions and any interest owing.

(8) On and from the date of filing of the caveat, a charge under subsection (7) has the same priority as a mortgage under the Land Titles Act and may be enforced in the same manner as a mortgage.

(9) The Dower Act and Part 10 of the Civil Enforcement Act do not apply to proceedings under subsection (8).

(10) If a corporation has filed a caveat under this section, the corporation shall withdraw the caveat on the payment to it of the amount of the charge.

(11) Notwithstanding subsection (8), if

- (a) a corporation has filed a caveat under this section,
 - (b) subsequent to the caveat's being filed another person gains title to the unit pursuant to
 - (i) a foreclosure action,
 - (ii) an action for specific performance, or
 - (iii) a tax recovery proceeding under the Municipal Government Act,
- and
- (c) an amount remains owing to the corporation with respect to the contribution and interest for which the caveat was filed, the caveat remains registered against the certificate of title of the unit until the amount owing is paid to the corporation.

InsuranceInsurance

47(1) Subject to the regulations, a corporation

- (a) where a building is divided into units, shall place and maintain insurance on the units, other than improvements made to the units by the owners, and the common property against loss resulting from destruction or damage caused by any peril prescribed by or otherwise required by the regulations to be insured against,
- (b) where a parcel is divided into bare land units, shall place and maintain insurance on the common property against loss resulting from destruction or damage caused by any peril prescribed by or otherwise required by the regulations to be insured against,
- (c) shall, if required to do so by bylaw, place and maintain insurance on the improvements made to the units by the owners against loss resulting from destruction or damage caused by any peril prescribed by or otherwise required by the regulations to be insured against, and
- (d) may place and maintain insurance on the units and the common property, or either of them, against additional perils other than those required to be insured against under clauses (a), (b) and (c), and for that purpose the corporation has an insurable interest in the units and the common property.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(b), a corporation is not required to place and maintain insurance against perils to which the common property is not subject.

(3) In complying with subsection (1), the corporation must place and maintain insurance for replacement cost value that provides that if

- (a) the insured property is destroyed or damaged, and
- (b) that property is replaced or repaired,

no deduction shall be made from the settlement for depreciation to the property.

(4) If a corporation places insurance under subsection (1)(d), it may continue that insurance unless it is prohibited from doing so by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the corporation.

(5) Any payment by an insurer under a policy of insurance for the destruction of or damage to a unit or the common property must, notwithstanding the terms of the policy,

- (a) be paid to the insurance trustee designated in the bylaws or, if the bylaws do not designate an insurance trustee, to the corporation, and
- (b) be used forthwith, subject to sections 59, 60 and 61, for the replacement or repair of the insured property that was destroyed or damaged.

(6) Notwithstanding the Insurance Act or any policy of insurance, if insurance is placed by a corporation and an owner against the loss resulting from destruction of or damage to the units or the common property,

- (a) the insurance placed by the corporation is deemed to be first loss insurance, and
- (b) the insurance placed by the owner of a unit in respect of the same property that is insured by the corporation is deemed to be excess insurance.

(7) In addition to placing and maintaining insurance under subsection (1), a corporation shall place and maintain insurance against the following:

- (a) any liability incurred by a member of the board or an officer of the corporation arising out of any action or omission of the member or officer with respect to carrying out the functions and duties of a member or officer except as a result of a failure to comply with section 28(2);

- (b) any liability incurred by the corporation arising out of any action or omission of a member of the board or an officer of the corporation with respect to carrying out the functions and duties of a member or officer;
- (c) any liability incurred by the corporation arising out of a breach of duty as the occupier of the common property;
- (d) any liability incurred by the corporation arising out of the ownership, use or operation of any machinery, equipment, pressure vessels and vehicles.

Notification of insurance coverage changes

48 A corporation shall, when there is a change in one or more of the following matters with respect to the corporation's insurance policy, provide each owner with written notice of the change and a copy of the insurance certificate reflecting the change within 30 days of the date the corporation receives the insurance certificate:

- (a) the amount of the deductible payable in the event of a claim;
- (b) the replacement value of the coverage;
- (c) any addition to permitted exclusions;
- (d) any other matter prescribed in the regulations.

Dispositions of Real Property of the Corporation or Common PropertyDisposition of common property

49(1) By a special resolution a corporation may be directed to transfer or lease the real property of the corporation or the common property, or any part of it.

(2) When the board is satisfied that the special resolution was properly passed and the requirements of the regulations have been complied with, the corporation shall execute the appropriate transfer or lease.

(3) A transfer or lease executed in accordance with subsection (2) is valid and effective without execution by any person having an interest in the common property, and the receipt of the corporation for the purchase money, rent, premiums or other money payable to the corporation under the terms of the transfer or lease is a sufficient discharge of and exonerates the persons taking under the transfer or the lease from any responsibility for the application of the money expressed to have been so received.

(4) The Registrar shall not register a transfer or lease authorized under this section unless it has endorsed on it or is accompanied with a certificate under the seal of the corporation stating

- (a) that the special resolution was properly passed,
- (b) that the transfer or lease conforms with the terms of it, and
- (c) that the requirements of the regulations have been complied with.

(5) The certificate referred to in subsection (4) is,

- (a) in favour of a purchaser or lessee of the common property, or part of it, and
- (b) in favour of the Registrar,

conclusive proof of the facts stated in the certificate.

(6) On the filing for registration of a transfer of common property, the Registrar

- (a) shall, before issuing a certificate of title, amend the condominium plan by deleting from it the common property comprised in the transfer, and
- (b) shall register the transfer by issuing to the transferee a certificate of title for the land transferred, but no notification of the transfer shall be made on any other certificate of title in the register.

(7) On the filing for registration of a lease of common property, the Registrar shall register the lease by noting it on the condominium plan in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

Exclusive use areas

50(1) Notwithstanding sections 37(3) and 49, a corporation may, by means of a bylaw, lease, licence or other instrument, grant an owner the right to exercise exclusive possession in respect of an area of the real property of the corporation or the common property.

(2) A grant of the right to exercise exclusive possession may be withdrawn according to the terms of the bylaw, lease, licence or other instrument referred to in subsection (1).

(3) Where the corporation grants a right to exercise exclusive possession under subsection (1), the corporation may require the owner, under the bylaw, lease, licence or other instrument, to maintain and repair the area of the real property of the corporation or the common property that is the subject of the grant.

(4) Despite subsection (3), where an owner fails to maintain or repair the area of the real property of the corporation or common property in compliance with the requirements under subsection (3), the corporation may carry out the necessary maintenance or repairs.

(5) A corporation may recover from an owner by an action in debt any reasonable costs it has incurred

- (a) for the purposes of maintenance or repairs under subsection (4),
- (b) pursuant to the regulations, or
- (c) as required by a municipal authority or other public authority in respect of the area of the real property of the corporation or the common property that is the subject of a grant to the owner of the right to exercise exclusive possession under subsection (1).

(3) When the board is satisfied that the special resolution was properly passed and the requirements of the regulations have been complied with, the corporation shall execute the appropriate instrument to grant the easement or covenant.

(4) An instrument granting an easement or covenant executed in accordance with subsection (3) is valid and effective without execution by any person having an interest in the parcel, and the receipt of the corporation is a sufficient discharge of and exonerates all persons taking under the instrument from any responsibility for the application of the money expressed to have been so received.

(5) The Registrar shall not register an instrument granting an easement or covenant authorized under this section unless it has endorsed on it or is accompanied with a certificate under the seal of the corporation stating that the special resolution was properly passed and that the requirements of the regulations have been complied with.

(6) The certificate referred to in subsection (5) is,

- (a) in favour of a person dealing with the corporation under this section, and
- (b) in favour of the Registrar,

conclusive proof of the facts stated in the certificate.

Rental of Units

Rental of units

53(1) An owner of a unit shall not rent the owner's unit until the owner has given written notice to the corporation of the owner's intention to rent the unit, setting out

- (a) the address at which the owner may be served with a notice given by the corporation under section 54 or an application or order referred to in section 55 or 56, and
- (b) the amount of rent to be charged for the unit.

(2) If an owner of a unit rents the owner's unit it is a condition of that tenancy, notwithstanding anything in the tenancy agreement, that any person in possession of that unit shall not

- (a) cause damage to the real or personal property of the corporation or the common property, or
- (b) contravene the bylaws.

(3) The corporation may require an owner who rents the owner's unit to pay to and maintain with the corporation a deposit that the corporation may use for

- (a) the repair or replacement of the real and personal property of the corporation or of the common property, and
- (b) the maintenance or repair of any area of the common property that is the subject of a grant to the owner of the right to exercise exclusive possession under section 50(1), that is damaged, destroyed, lost or removed, as the case may be, by any person in possession of the rented unit.

(4) A deposit referred to in subsection (3) shall not exceed the prescribed amount and shall be held and repaid along with interest earned, if any, as prescribed.

(5) The owner of a unit shall give the corporation written notice of the name of the tenant renting the unit within 20 days from the commencement of the tenancy.

(6) Within 20 days after ceasing to rent the owner's unit, the owner shall give the corporation written notice that the owner's unit is no longer rented.

(7) A corporation shall, within 20 days after receiving a written notice under subsection (6),

- (a) return the deposit and interest earned, if any, to the owner,
- (b) if the corporation has made use of the deposit for one or more of the purposes referred to under subsection (3), deliver to the owner
 - (i) a statement of account showing the amount used and interest earned, if any, and
 - (ii) the balance of the deposit not used, if any and interest earned, if any,

or

- (c) if the corporation is entitled to make use of the deposit but is unable to determine the amount of the deposit that it will use, deliver to the owner an estimated statement of account showing the amount it intends to use and, within 60 days after delivering to the owner the estimated statement of account, deliver to the owner
 - (i) a final statement of account showing the amounts used and interest earned, if any, and

- (ii) the balance of the deposit not used, if any and interest earned, if any.

(8) If a deposit referred to in subsection (3) is owing by an owner to a corporation, the corporation may, in addition to any rights of recovery that it has in law, recover that amount in accordance with section 39.2 as if it were a contribution.

- (a) causes damage, other than normal wear and tear, to the real or personal property of the corporation or to the common property, or
- (b) contravenes a bylaw.

(2) When the corporation gives a tenant a notice under subsection (1),

- (a) the tenant shall give up possession of the unit, and
- (b) notwithstanding the Residential Tenancies Act or anything contained in the tenancy agreement between the tenant and the tenant's landlord, the tenancy agreement terminates,

78(1) For the purposes of the Prompt Payment and Construction Lien Act,

(a) if on the request of the owner of a unit

(i) work is done in or on or in respect of that unit, or

(ii) material is furnished to be used in or on that unit, any lien that arises under that Act in consequence of it is on the estate of the owner in that unit and the owner's share in the common property;

(b) if on the request of a corporation

(i) work is done in or on or in respect of the common property or a unit, or both, or

(ii) material is furnished to be used in or on the common property or a unit, or both, intended for the benefit of the common property generally, any lien that arises under that Act in consequence of it is on the estates of all the owners in all the units and the common property;

- (c) if on the request of a corporation
 - (i) work is done in or on or in respect of any unit, or
 - (ii) material is furnished to be used in or on any unit,
 - intended for the benefit of that unit, any lien that arises under that Act in consequence of it is on the estate of the owner in that unit and the owner's share in the common property.

(2) Where

- (a) a lien referred to in subsection (1)(b) arises, and
- (b) a statement of lien is registered against the condominium plan, that statement of lien, on being registered against the condominium plan,

- (c) is deemed to be also registered against the certificate of title for each unit, and
- (d) may be enforced against the common property and each unit in the same manner as if the statement of lien were specifically registered against the estate of each owner and that owner's share in the common property.

(3) Where

- (a) a lien referred to in subsection (1)(b) is registered with the Registrar, and
- (b) payment is made to the holder of the lien in an amount that is sufficient to discharge the proportion of the liability that relates to the owner's unit and the owner's share in the common property, the holder of the lien shall, on the demand of the owner, provide to the owner a discharge of the lien as it pertains to the owner's unit and the owner's share in the common property.

(4) A discharge of a lien that is provided under subsection (3) may be entered on the condominium plan.

Inspections and Investigations

Appointment and identification of inspector

78.01(1) The Minister may appoint individuals as inspectors.

(2) An inspector who enters any place under the authority of this Act must, on request,

- (a) produce a document that identifies the person as an inspector under this Act, and
- (b) explain the purpose for which the inspector is entering the place.

2014 c10 s53

Inspection and investigation

78.02(1) Any record or document required to be created or maintained under this Act or the regulations must be available for inspection by an inspector.

(2) An inspector may, at any reasonable time, enter the business premises of a developer and inspect the operation and records and documents of the developer for the purpose of determining whether this Act or the regulations are being complied with.

(3) Where an inspector has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has committed an offence under this Act or the regulations, the inspector may, at any reasonable time, enter any premises, other than a private dwelling place, to conduct an investigation.

(4) In carrying out an inspection or investigation an inspector may, at any reasonable time,

- (a) require any person to answer any relevant question and direct the person to answer the question under oath,
- (b) demand the production for examination of any records or documents that are relevant to the inspection or investigation,
- (c) on giving a receipt for them, remove records and documents that are relevant to the inspection or investigation for the purpose of examining them and making copies of them, and
- (d) make copies or take photographs of any record or document removed under clause (c).

(5) If an inspector removes any records or documents during an inspection or investigation, the inspector

- (a) shall give a receipt for the records or documents to the person from whom they were taken, and
 - (b) shall return any records or documents within a reasonable time after they have served the purposes for which they were taken.
- (6) On request, an inspector shall provide a copy of any records or documents removed during an inspection or investigation to the person from whom they were taken.
- (7) A developer and any person working in the business premises of a developer or in premises referred to in subsection (3) shall co-operate with an inspector acting under the authority of this section.
- (8) A developer shall, at a location within Alberta, produce any books, records, documents or other things requested by an inspector that are relevant to determine if there is compliance with the developer's duties under this Act and the regulations.
- (9) The Director may apply to the Court for
- (a) an order directing any person
 - (i) to produce to an inspector any records or documents relevant to the inspection or investigation in the person's possession or under the person's control, and
 - (ii) to give up possession of any record or document described in subclause (i) to allow the inspector to take it away to examine and copy it and to return it within a reasonable time,
 - and
 - (b) an order directing any person to attend before the inspector to answer any relevant inquiries the inspector may have relating to the inspection or investigation.
- (10) An application for an order under subsection (9) may be made without notice if the Court is satisfied that it is proper to make the order in the circumstances.

Undertakings

Developer's undertakings

78.1(1) When

- (a) the Director is of the opinion that a developer has contravened this Act or the regulations, and
- (b) the Director is satisfied that the developer has ceased the contravention, the developer may enter into an undertaking with the Director in the form and containing the provisions that the Director, on negotiation with the developer, considers proper.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), an undertaking may include any of the following specific undertakings:

- (a) to stop engaging in a practice or to change a practice described in the undertaking;
- (b) to provide compensation to anyone who has suffered a loss;
- (c) to publicize the undertaking or the action being taken;
- (d) to pay the costs of investigating the developer's activities and any costs associated with the undertaking.

(3) The Director must maintain a public record of all undertakings entered into under this section.

2014 c10 s53

Change in undertaking by Director

78.11(1) A developer who enters into an undertaking may apply to the Director to vary or cancel that undertaking.

(2) On considering the application, the Director may

- (a) refuse the application, or
- (b) vary or cancel the undertaking.

2014 c10 s53

Change in undertaking by Court

78.12(1) Despite section 78.11, a developer who enters into an undertaking may apply to the Court for an order to vary or cancel the undertaking.

(2) On considering an application, the Court may

- (a) refuse the application, or
- (b) vary or cancel the undertaking and impose whatever terms or conditions the Court considers proper.

2014 c10 s53

Effect of varying or cancelling an undertaking

78.13 When an undertaking is varied or cancelled, that variance or cancellation does not invalidate anything done under that undertaking prior to the variance or cancellation.

2014 c10 s53

Director's OrdersDirector's orders

78.2(1) If, in the opinion of the Director,

- (a) a developer is contravening or has contravened this Act or the regulations, or
- (b) a developer is using any form, agreement, letter or other document that is misleading or contains a term that misrepresents a provision of this Act or the regulations, the Director may issue an order directed to the developer.

(2) An order under subsection (1) may direct the developer

- (a) to stop engaging in anything that is described in the order, subject to any terms or conditions set out in the order, and
- (b) to take any measures specified in the order, within the time specified in the order, to ensure that this Act and the regulations are complied with.

(3) A developer who is subject to an order under this section may appeal the order under section 78.5.

(4) The Director may reconsider or vary an order issued under subsection (1).

2014 c10 s53

Enforcement of Director's orders

78.21(1) If the Director is of the opinion that a person is not complying or has not complied with an order of the Director under section 78.2, the Director may apply to the Court for an order directing that person to comply with the order.

(2) The Director may not bring an application under this section

- (a) until the time for appealing the Director's order has passed without an appeal having been made, or
- (b) if an appeal has been made, until the appeal has been resolved and the Director's order either stands or has been confirmed by the appeal board.

- (3) After receiving an application under subsection (1), the Court may, if it considers it necessary in the circumstances, make an interim order granting the relief that the Court considers appropriate pending the determination of the application.
- (4) An interim order under subsection (3) may be made ex parte if the Court considers it appropriate in the circumstances.
- (5) On hearing an application, the Court may,
- (a) if it is of the opinion that there were insufficient grounds for the Director to have issued an order under section 78.2, quash the order;
 - (b) if it is of the opinion that the Director had sufficient grounds for issuing the order and that the person is not complying or has not complied with the Director's order, grant an order, subject to any terms and conditions the Court considers appropriate in the circumstances, doing one or more of the following:
 - (i) directing the person to comply with the order of the Director;
 - (ii) giving directions that the Court considers necessary in order to ensure that the order of the Director will be complied with;
 - (iii) awarding costs in respect of the matter.

2014 c10 s53

Administrative Penalties

Notice of administrative penalty

78.3(1) If the Director is of the opinion that a developer has contravened this Act or the regulations, the Director may, by notice in writing served on the developer, require the developer to pay to the Crown an administrative penalty in the amount set out in the notice.

(2) Where a contravention or a failure to comply continues for more than one day, the amount set out in the notice of administrative penalty under subsection (1) may include a daily amount for each day or part of a day on which the contravention or non-compliance occurs or continues.

(3) The amount of an administrative penalty, including any daily amounts referred to in subsection (2), must not exceed $100 000.

(4) A notice of administrative penalty shall not be served more than 4 years after the day on which the contravention or non-compliance occurred.

(5) A developer who is the subject of an administrative penalty under this section may appeal under section 78.5.

2014 c10 s53

Right to make representations

78.31 Before imposing an administrative penalty in an amount of $500 or more, the Director shall

- (a) advise the developer, in writing, of the Director's intent to impose the administrative penalty and the reasons for it, and
- (b) provide the developer with an opportunity to make written representations to the Director.

2014 c10 s53

No offence where administrative penalty paid

78.32 A developer who pays an administrative penalty in respect of a contravention or a failure to comply shall not be charged under this Act with an offence in respect of the same contravention or failure to comply that is described in the notice of administrative penalty.

2014 c10 s53

Enforceability of notice of administrative penalty

78.33(1) Subject to subsection (2), where a developer fails to pay an administrative penalty in accordance with the notice of administrative penalty and the regulations, the Minister may file a copy of the notice of administrative penalty with the clerk of the Court, and on being filed, the notice has the same force and effect and may be enforced as if it were a judgment of the Court.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where an administrative penalty has been stayed under section 78.51(4).

2014 c10 s53

Court Actions by the DirectorCourt actions by the Director

78.4(1) In addition to any other remedy under this Act, the Director may bring and maintain an action in the Court against a developer if the Director is of the opinion that the developer

- (a) has contravened this Act or the regulations under this Act, or

- (b) has not complied with the terms of an undertaking that the developer has entered into.

(2) In an action brought under subsection (1), the Court may

- (a) declare that this Act or the regulations under this Act have been contravened;
- (b) grant an order requiring the developer to provide any redress the Court considers proper to those persons who suffered damage or loss arising from the contravention of this Act or the regulations;
- (c) grant an order in the nature of an injunction restraining the developer from engaging in the practice that gave rise to the contravention of this Act or the regulations;
- (d) if the subject of the order is an agreement, grant an order for specific performance of the agreement or grant an order for rescission of the agreement;
- (e) grant an order for the restitution of property or money;
- (f) award punitive or exemplary damages;
- (g) grant any other relief the Court considers proper.

(3) Damages awarded under this section are a debt owing to the Crown in right of Alberta.

2014 c10 s53

Director's claim for restitution

78.41 If the Court has granted an order under section 78.4 that provides for restitution of property or money to a person who has suffered loss arising from a contravention of this Act or the regulations, the Director may, on behalf of the person or persons, do anything necessary to enforce the order against the personal or real property of the developer who is liable to pay the restitution.

2014 c10 s53

Advertisement of judicial decision

78.42(1) When the Court grants relief under section 78.4, the Court may make a further order requiring the developer to advertise to the public particulars of any order, judgment or other relief granted by the Court.

(2) In making an order under subsection (1), the Court may specify

- (a) the methods of making the advertisement so that it will ensure prompt and reasonable communication to consumers;

- (b) the contents or form, or both, of the advertisement;
- (c) the number of times the advertisement is to be made;
- (d) any other conditions the Court considers proper.

2014 c10 s53

Public record

78.43(1) The Director shall maintain a public record of undertakings, Director's orders, Court orders under section 78.21 or 78.4, administrative penalties and any other prescribed information or documents.

(2) The Director may specify the form of the public record referred to in subsection (1) and which documents must or may be included.

2014 c10 s53

AppealsAppeal

78.5(1) A developer

- (a) to whom an order under section 78.2 is directed, or
- (b) on whom a notice of administrative penalty is served under section 78.3

may appeal the order or administrative penalty by serving the Minister with a notice of appeal within 30 days after being notified in writing of the order or being served with the notice of administrative penalty.

(2) A notice of appeal must contain the information and be made in the manner provided for in the Consumer Protection Act and the regulations under that Act, with any necessary modifications.

(3) The Minister must, within 30 days after being served with a notice of appeal under subsection (1) and payment of the fee for the appeal as established by the regulations under this Act or the Consumer Protection Act, refer the appeal to an appeal board appointed or designated in accordance with the Consumer Protection Act and the regulations under that Act, with any necessary modifications.

(4) The Minister may set the time within which an appeal board is to hear an appeal and render a decision and may extend that time.

(5) An appeal board that hears an appeal pursuant to this section may confirm, vary or quash the order or administrative penalty that is being appealed.

(6) An appeal under this section is a new trial of the issues that resulted in the order or administrative penalty being appealed.

(7) An appeal under this section is to be conducted in accordance with the Consumer Protection Act and the regulations under that Act, with any necessary modifications.

2014 c10 s53;2017 c18 s1(23)

Effect of appeal

78.51(1) Subject to this section, an appeal under section 78.5(1)(a) does not affect the status or enforceability of the order being appealed.

(2) A developer who is appealing an order under section 78.5(1)(a) may apply to the chair of the appeal board to stay the order being appealed.

(3) On application under subsection (2) and after allowing the Director to make representations, the chair may, if the chair considers it appropriate, order a stay of the order being appealed until the appeal board renders its decision on the appeal or the appeal is withdrawn.

(4) If an appeal is commenced regarding an administrative penalty, the administrative penalty is stayed by the deposition by the developer of an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of the administrative penalty with the President of Treasury Board and Minister of Finance within 30 days after the date on which the notice of administrative penalty referred to in section 78.3 is served on the person.

2014 c10 s53

Appeal to Court

78.52 The Director or a developer whose appeal is heard by an appeal board may appeal the decision of the appeal board by filing an application with the Court within 30 days after being notified in writing of the decision, and the Court may make any order that an appeal board may make under section 78.5(5).

- (b) 3 times the amount obtained by the body corporate as a result of the offence.

(3) Where an individual is convicted of an offence, the individual is liable to a fine of not more than the greater of

- (a) $25 000, and
- (b) 3 times the amount obtained by the individual as a result of the offence.

(4) Where a person is convicted of an offence in respect of section 13(2) or 14(3), (4), (5), (6) or (7), the fine provided for the offence may be imposed for each day or part of a day on which the offence occurred or continued.

(5) The total amount of a fine imposed on a person in respect of a continuing offence referred to in subsection (4) may not exceed the amount set out

- (a) in subsection (2) for a body corporate, or
- (b) in subsection (3) for an individual.

RSA 2000 cC-22 s79;2014 c10 s54

Liability of directors and officers

79.1(1) When a developer that is a body corporate commits an offence under this Act or the regulations, every principal, director, officer, manager, employee or agent of the developer who authorized the act or omission that constitutes the offence or who assented to, acquiesced in or participated in the act or omission that constitutes the offence is guilty of the offence whether or not the developer has been prosecuted for the offence.

(2) When a developer that is a partnership or an owner of a sole proprietorship commits an offence under this Act or the regulations, each partner in the partnership and each manager, employee or agent of the partner or owner who authorized the act or omission that constitutes the offence or who assented to, acquiesced in or participated in the act or omission that constitutes the offence is guilty of the offence whether or not the partner or owner has been prosecuted for the offence.

2014 c10 s54

Vicarious liability

79.2 For the purposes of this Act, an act or omission by an employee or agent of a developer is deemed also to be an act or omission of the developer if the act or omission occurred

- (a) in the course of the employee's employment with the developer, or
- (b) in the course of the agent's exercising powers or performing duties on behalf of the developer under their agency relationship.

2014 c10 s54

Time limit for prosecution

79.3 A prosecution of an offence under this Act or the regulations shall not be commenced more than 4 years after the day on which the offence was alleged to have been committed.

2014 c10 s54

Government's costs

79.4(1) The Director may require a person who is investigated under this Act and who

- (a) is the subject of an order of the Director under section 78.2, or
- (b) has entered into an undertaking to pay the costs that the Government incurs in the investigation or that arose in the process leading up to the issuance of the order of the Director or the entering into of the undertaking.

(2) The Director must notify a person referred to in subsection (1) of the amount of the costs, and the person has 30 days from receiving the notice to file an objection with the Director respecting the amount of the costs.

(3) On receiving an objection within the 30-day time period specified in subsection (2), the Director must submit the matter to an arbitration process approved by the Minister.

(4) A person who is required to pay costs under subsection (1) is liable to pay

- (a) the amount specified in the Director's notice, if no objection is filed within the 30-day time period specified in subsection (2), or
- (b) the amount specified in the decision of the arbitrator, and the Director may collect the amount by civil action for debt.

NOTE: Sections 61 to 63 of the Condominium Property Amendment Act, 1996, which came into force on September 1, 2000, provide as follows:

Transitional

61(1) In this section,

- (a) “amended Act” means the Condominium Property Act as amended by this Act;
- (b) “previous Act” means the Condominium Property Act as it read immediately before it was amended by this Act.

(2) Where a purchaser enters into a purchase agreement, as defined in the previous Act, before the coming into force of the amended Act, section 11 of the previous Act applies in respect of that purchase agreement in the same manner as if that section had not been repealed by section 10 of this Act and replaced by section 11 as enacted by section 10 of this Act.

(NOTE: In RSA 2000, section 11 has been renumbered as section 14.)

(3) If an action is commenced under section 29 of the previous Act and is not concluded before the coming into force of this Act, the previous Act continues to apply to that action as if that section had not been repealed by section 30 of this Act and replaced by section 29 as enacted by section 30 of this Act.

(NOTE: In RSA 2000, section 29 has been renumbered as section 36.)

(4) Where under the amended Act a special resolution is required in respect of a matter for which a unanimous resolution was required under the previous Act, the amended Act applies and that matter is to be dealt with by means of a special resolution.

1996 c12 s61;2000 c11 s12

62(1) A corporation that was incorporated under the Condominium Property Act before the coming into force of section 20(a) of this Act may, by a resolution of the board of directors, change its name to “Condominium Corporation No.

.....” (the number to be specified being the number given to the condominium plan when the condominium plan was registered under the Condominium Property Act).

(2) A change of name made under subsection (1) does not take effect until

- (a) the corporation files with the Registrar of Land Titles a copy of the board of directors’ resolution changing the corporation’s name, and
- (b) the Registrar of Land Titles has made a memorandum of the filing on the condominium plan.

1996 c12 s62

63 Section 38 of the Condominium Property Act as amended by section 39(a) of this Act applies only in respect of insurance that is placed or renewed after the coming into force of section 39(a) of this Act.

(NOTE: In RSA 2000, section 38 has been renumbered as section 47.)
