The Registrar of the Real Estate Council of Alberta (RECA) has determined there is sufficient evidence you have contravened section 91(4) of the Real Estate Act Rules and this is conduct deserving of sanction.

91(4) A brokerage's accounting shall be filed with the Council not later than 3 months after the end of the brokerages fiscal year and shall cover the fiscal year or, where the brokerage did not carry on business for the entire fiscal year, that part of the fiscal year for which the brokerage carried on business.

 - a) Your brokerage fiscal year end was December 31, 2021.
 - b) You were sent numerous reminder emails to the brokerage email address and your personal email address reminding you that the required accounting forms must be filed by March 31, 2022.
 - c) Each email reminder gave clear instructions on what forms were required, a link to RECA's website that explained how to access the forms, and a warning that failure to complete the required forms by March 31, 2022, could result in an administrative penalty
 - d) March 21, 2022, you requested waiving the fiscal year end reporting requirement. This was declined.
 - e) To date, RECA has not received your brokerage accounting fiscal year end reports. Paying this penalty does not remove the responsibility of filing your outstanding brokerage accounting forms with RECA.

The Registrar considered the following aggravating and mitigating factors:

Aggravating Factors

- RECA sent you several reminders about filing your brokerage accounting reports on time and the consequences of failing to do so.
