TO: Rebecca Rae Mayhew

The Registrar of the Real Estate Council of Alberta (RECA) has determined there is sufficient evidence you have contravened section 41(d) of the Real Estate Act Rules and this is conduct deserving of sanction.

Rule 41 – Licensees must:

(d) fulfill their fiduciary duties to their clients

Particulars of the contravention(s):

1. In or around March 2022, you failed to fulfill your fiduciary duties to your Buyer client, contrary to section 41(d) of the Real Estate Act Rules:
  - a) In March 2022, you represented your Buyer client for the purchase of the property located at [ADDRESS]. This was a condominium and included a titled parking stall.
  - b) The Buyer intended to make an offer that included the titled parking stall, and you were aware the property included a titled parking stall.
  - c) You drafted an offer to purchase and failed to include the titled parking stall. This was a failure to look out for your client's interests.
  - d) The purchase contract was accepted and closed. The buyer found out they did not receive a titled parking stall in the sale.

The Registrar considered the following aggravating and mitigating factors:

Aggravating Factors

- While this was not intentional, it was a serious error that may have impacted your client financially. The titled parking stall was determined to have a value of around $25,000.

Mitigating Factors

- Your errors and omissions insurance helped cover the cost of this error and allowed your client to obtain the titled parking stall.
